ORDER:

In the G.O. first read above, orders were issued establishing a Legal Advisory Unit in Health, Medical & Family Welfare (OP.I) Department to monitor the court cases with the following staff through outsourcing on remuneration mentioned against each:

- | | | | |
|-------------------------|-----|----|-----------------------------|
| 1) Legal Advisor | - 1 | .. | Rs.30,000/- per month |
| 2) Liason Assistants | - 2 | .. | Rs.5000/- per month (each) |
| 3) Data Entry Operators | - 2 | .. | Rs.5,000/- per month (each) |

2. The Legal Advisory Unit provided with the following infrastructure:

- | | | |
|---------------------------|----|---------------|
| 1) Computers – 2 | .. | Rs.1,00,000/- |
| 2) Printer – 1 | | |
| 3) Stationery Consumables | .. | Rs.1,00,000/- |

3. Accordingly, vide G.O. second read above, Sri Mullapudi Venkataramana, Advocate has been appointed as Legal Advisor in Legal Advisory Unit for a period of one year and he has reported to duty as Legal Advisor on 19-11-2007.

4. Subsequently, vide G.O. third cited, orders were issued raising the remuneration of the two Data Entry Operators at Rs.5,500/- per month and vide G.O. fourth cited, orders were issued in partial modification of the orders issued in G.O. first cited, to appoint Legal Advisor and supporting staff on contract basis instead of out-sourcing for a period of one year to work in Legal Advisory Unit in Health, Medical & Family Welfare (OP.I) Department and the contract period of Legal Advisory Unit has been extended from time to time. The contract period of the Legal Advisor was completed on 8-11-2009.

5. Since the services of the Legal Advisor are essential for expeditious disposal of the pending APAT/APHC cases in the Department, it has been proposed to continue the Legal Advisory Unit in Health, Medical & Family Welfare (OP.I) Department for one more year.

6. Accordingly, Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby order to continue the Legal Advisory Unit for one more year in Health, Medical & Family Welfare (OP.I) Department i.e., from 15-11-2009 to 14-11-2010 with Sri M.Venkata Ramana as Legal Advisor subject to the terms of and conditions shown in the annexed to this order by entering into fresh agreement with him on contract basis .
